MEXICO TRIP MAN'S SWINE FLU TERROR

A MAN who had just returned from a Mexican holiday was treated at Harlow's hospital this week after it was feared that he might have contracted the deadly swine flu.

The patient, who is in his 30s, admitted himself to the Accident and Emergency Department at PAH on Monday morning, with flu-like symptoms.

He had been back in the UK for a few days after returning from the Latin American country on a flight to Stansted airport.

Medics put him into isolation while they assessed him before giving him the all-clear. However, he is still being treated as an inpatient for an unrelated problem.

The man is the first person to go the Hamstel Road site to report feeling unwell after travelling to Mexico, where the virus is thought to have taken the lives of more than 100 people.

However, the hospital has been liaising with various medical organisations as well as making preparations to deal with any more patients who attend with flu-like symptoms.

The hospital's pandemic planning group has also met to go over any planned response to the swine flu alert.

Sandra Dimmock, medical director of Princess Alexandra Hospital NHS Trust said: "The Trust is receiving advice from the Health Protection Agency and the East of England SHA and is working closely with West Essex PCT and we are adopting the advice available via the HPA website which is being constantly updated.

"Patients who meet the swine flu criteria and who require testing will be given a surgical mask and treated in our A&E. So far we have had one man who was seen in A&E having returned from Mexico some days ago. He was assessed by doctors who were happy his symptoms did not relate to swine flu."

Already, five people in the UK have been confirmed as having the virus – which is a potentially deadly mix of human, swine and avian genes – and another 25 cases had been reported by Tuesday although eight of those have now been given the all clear.

Symptoms include fever, cough sore throat, aches and pains, headache chills and sickness. It can be treated using antiviral drugs.

● If you feel unwell after travelling abroad call NHS Direct 0845 4647 or your GP.

Motorist slams council's £2k delay

A MOTORING enthusiast whose show-car was severely damaged when the roof of his rented garage collapsed has slammed Harlow Council for failing to pay out for repairs almost a year on from the accident.

The souped-up Toyota Celica owned by Ian Trenner (25), of Haydens Road, pictured right, suffered costly damage to its tailgate, spoiler and wheels when the roof of the garage he rents from the council caved in last May.

Although the authority promptly repaired its own property, it has yet to finalise an insurance payout of around £2,000 to cover the damage to Mr Trenner's car, leaving the frustrated engineer unable to exhibit his pride and joy at motor shows.

"I can't believe I'm still waiting for the council to pay out," he told the Star. "It's been nearly a year now since the car was damaged, and every time I try and get it sorted with the council's insurance department I hit a brick wall."

"I've spent a lot of money on the car over the years and I'm really proud of it, but I can't take it along to any shows until it gets repaired and there's no way I'm going to fork out for something that's the council's responsibility."

A council spokesman told the Star the claim should be settled imminently through insurance brokers Zurich, but admitted it had taken the council almost eight months to submit all the necessary details.

Father of stabbed teen dies of MS

THE father of teen stab victim Frank Empson has died following a long battle with Multiple sclerosis.

Steve Empson (57) of Arkwrights, Harlow, passed away at a nursing home in Chelmsford last Wednesday.

Mr Empson was struck down with the degenerative disease eight years ago. Frank (19) was trying to raise cash to pay for stem cell treatment for his father when he died in 2006.

However, Mr Empson underwent the pioneering treatment in Holland a few months later after £13,000 was raised through Frank's Last Wish Appeal. Unfortunately the treatment was unsuccessful.

Speaking about Mr Empson's death, his sister, Ina Page (46) of Radburn Close, said: "Steve was the best brother in the world and he will be terribly missed."

"He was such a funny man and was always the life and the soul of the party and always got up to dance and do karaoke."

Mr Empson played professional football at Fulham and Leyton Orient as a young man before finishing his career due to injury. He went on to be a bricklayer, which he continued doing until he was diagnosed.

The horrendous final moments for Kerry

A COURT has been told of the chilling screams for help made by a young woman shortly before she succumbed to smoke and flames in a horrific arson attack which killed her and left her boyfriend severely disabled.

Scott Warwick, who lived in a flat next to Kerry Youngs and Kevin Chapple in Sherwood House, Bush Fair, said in a statement read to Chelmsford Crown Court this week that he heard her screaming "get me out... let me out."

He said he had got out of his bath to hear his smoke alarm and then saw black smoke coming into his home through the letter box.

He said he knew a woman lived at the next flat and continued: "I heard the voice of a female shouting, 'get me out... let me out'."

Another witness, Linda Band, who was rescued from her top floor flat the night of the fire in May, 2005, told how she had screamed for help as the flames took over.

"I thought I was going to die. I really thought I was going to die," she told the court.

The statements came just a few days after jurors had been told of the final words of 24-year-Miss Youngs as she called emergency services about the fire which saw another nine people need hospital treatment.

Miss Youngs never regained consciousness and died two days later. Mr Chapple, (31), now needs round-the-clock care and is not expected to recover from his injuries.

Two teenagers, aged 17 and 18, but who were just 13 and 14 and the time of the fire, face charges of murder, manslaughter and arson with intent to endanger life and being reckless as to whether life was endangered.

Carl Manton, (18), of Long Banks,

Harlow, and a 17-year-old Harlow youth who, for legal reasons, cannot be named, have denied the charges.

It is alleged they deliberately started the fire after a campaign of "bullying" against an occupant of another flat at the address.

In addition a woman aged 40, also from Harlow – the mother of the younger boy – and a 37-year-old man from Woodford Green, his former step-father, have pleaded not guilty to doing acts tending or intending to pervert the course of justice by making a false statement about the boy's whereabouts.

A 15-year-old girl also denies making a false statement. The trial continues.

Such able performances!

RUN ALONG NOW: Jess Lake, nearside, right, and Rosa Huntingdon, far right, are clearly enjoying themselves as they race each other in the Harlow Challenge Cup (photo: HAR05448425)

DISABLED athletes flocked to Mark Hall athletics track on Saturday to show off their sports skills in the inaugural Harlow Challenge Cup.

More than 60 competitors took part in events including turbo javelin, grip ball, long jump, shot putt and distance club, with runners and wheelchair racers taking part in 60m, 100m and 200m dashes.

Gold, silver and bronze medals were presented by Harlow paralympian Anne Wafula Strike, who also handed out commemorative medals to everyone who took part.

The event was organised by Harlow Council.

Fun fundraiser is a great girls night out

MEET the latest group of ladies to sign up for this year's 10km Midnight Walk in aid of St Clare Hospice.

The team, who have called themselves the Theydon Girls, are very familiar with the work of the hospice.

"My husband was a patient in the in-patient unit two years ago and spent his last few days there," said team member Barbara Sweeting.

"Since then I've wanted to do whatever I can to support the charity and its fantastic caring work.

"I've found all my friends and those around me want to support the hospice, too, and sponsor me because of the personal connection."

Team-mate Sue Sowerby said: "I walked last year and it was so much fun, seeing the long line of flashing bunny ears and sea of pink walking through the town!"

"I think so many people in Theydon Bois will have experienced the work of St Clare in some way.

Everyone should sign up; it's a great night out with the girls and even if, like me, you don't walk very often it's not difficult.

"The time flies whilst you're chatting and laughing. Everyone we passed last year was shouting encouragement and cars were tooting - it was simply brilliant!"

"It's not every day you can get a group of your friends together and walk through Harlow at midnight!

"Whether it's your office colleagues or a group of your best friends this is a night out with a difference. "It's not a race, but a chance to walk, chat, laugh and raise money for St Clare Hospice."

Event fundraiser, Tracy Meale, said: "We would like to see 2,000 ladies taking part. Last year the sight was fantastic, but if we can get more people it will add even more to the atmosphere and to the total we can raise."

It is hoped this year's walk will raise £120,000, which would fund the hospice's in-patient unit for about five weeks. The unit provides specialist 24-hour care for eight patients at any one time.

The Midnight Walk takes place on Saturday, June 20.

Sign up today and help paint the town pink

HUNDREDS of people have already registered to take part in this year's Midnight Walk but hundreds more are needed if the £120,000 target is to be reached.

Tracy Meale, event fundraiser for St Clare, said: "We have had lots of people sign up but entries have dried up recently, even though we have heard from lots of people saying they are planning to take part.

"We would love to see the sign-up forms flooding in next week or people wanting to take part can sign up on our website."

The 10km walk, which starts in Harlow town centre, follows a planned route along the town's streets and cycle paths.

It is open to both men and women, as well as children aged over 14. Those aged 14 and 15 must be accompanied by a responsible adult who is registered to take part in the walk.

"We want to make this year even bigger than last year's hugely successful night," said Tracy. "Why not get a group of friends together and sign up to have a fun night and paint the town pink!"

Rights service fight: petition to save it goes to number 10

THE campaign to secure the long-term future of Harlow Welfare Rights & Advice has reached the Prime Minister's doorstep after supporters joined Harlow MP Bill Rammell to present a petition to 10 Downing Street.

Six representatives from Friends of HWRA, including group chairman Cliff Moore, were escorted to the PM's residence by Mr Rammell on Thursday to hand over the document in person before heading to the MP's office to discuss the progress of their campaign.

More than 8,000 people have now registered their opposition to Harlow Council's controversial plans to slash the service's budget by up to 82 per cent, including almost 600 who signed an online petition on the 10 Downing Street website calling for the PM to intervene.

Mr Moore said: "Cuts to the service have been forced upon us at a time when welfare rights and advice services are most needed.

"Our intention was to take this to the top, and I am pleased we have done so. It is vital we save the advice centre in Harlow for future generations."

Although HWRA was granted a temporary reprieve last month when the council's policy and resources committee agreed to fund the service for a further three months beyond the termination of its original contract on March 31, its long-term future still hangs in the balance.

Mr Rammell added: "While we have saved the centre in the short term, the service's future remains uncertain and I will continue to press the council very strongly on the issue of attracting external match funding.

"This petition will be a vital tool in demonstrating nationally the level of opposition to the Harlow cuts."

On your marks

FREE property marking kits and safety advice were given to OAPs at Harlow's Salvation Army centre last week in a special crime-fighting and fire prevention initiative set up by Essex Police and fire crews.

Big town firm set for new round of job cuts

By LOUISE SASSOON News Editor

sassoonl@hertsexnews.co.uk

SCORES more workers look set to be axed and hundreds could have their pay and working hours slashed at one of Harlow's major employers.

Just a few months after Truck-Lite laid off 74 staff due to reduced demand for products and services, a further 55 employees look set to go.

Bosses of the firm, which is a leading manufacturer and supplier of vehicle lighting, electrical harnessing and mirror systems, say they are currently consulting with staff over the proposal.

But they also want to strike a deal with the remaining workforce to shorten their working week and reduce pay if the economy continues to slow.

In a proposal statement sent to staff, director of operations John Hamilton states his intentions to reach an agreement over shorter hours and reduced pay as a possible alternative to having to make further large-scale redundancies.

"The company would prefer to achieve this by reaching an agreement through discussion with employee representatives and believes this is in the best interest of the future of the company and employees," he says.

It is thought if an agreement is reached the regulations would not come into effect immediately but once the situation worsens.

Speaking about the redundancies, Truck-Lite human resources director Duncan Turner said the move, which was happening throughout the firm's European arm, was regrettable, adding: "This proposal has been made in order to attempt to secure the longer term future of our Harlow facility during these difficult times." The company currently has 320 workers at it Barrows Road plant.

This week Harlow MP Bill Rammell said he was disappointed with the news yet more job losses could hit the town adding:

"I continue to press for assurances that every other opportunity is explored before staff are made redundant and that staff are receiving adequate support."

PROUD DAY: The Essex Yeomanry in Broad Walk, Harlow, during their parade through the town on Saturday as they were given Freedom of Entry to the town (photo: HAR0548461)

Morale booster for troops as Yeomanry given civic honour

HUNDREDS of people flocked to watch history made as the Freedom of Entry to Harlow was awarded to the Essex Yeomanry at the town's St George's Day celebrations. From a dais in front of the Civic Centre, Harlow council chairman Tony Hall addressed the crowds and guests before presenting the Freedom Scroll to the Honorary Colonel of the Yeomanry in a special ceremony on Saturday.

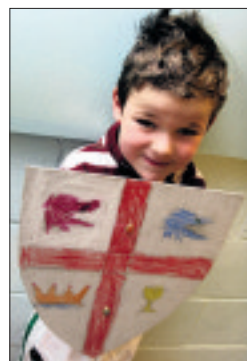

The regimental band, commanding officer, squadron and old comrades then paraded through the town.

It was the first time in the town's history a person or group has been given the Freedom of Entry to Harlow. Mr Hall, said: "It was an honour and privilege for me to grant the Yeomanry freedom to enter Harlow. It will go down as a key moment in Harlow's history. The Yeomanry has a long past and present association with the town and I think it was fitting that we marked this with a prestigious occasion.

"This was Harlow's way of thanking the troops and passing on our gratitude to them at this important time. "The public's reaction to the parade will be a welcome boost to our troops' morale."

Families were also given the opportunity on Saturday to pop into the Museum of Harlow to find out more about St George.

Marathon efforts see runners home

By LOUISE SASSOON
News Editor
sassoonl@hertsessexnews.co.ukRUNNERS in Harlow and the surrounding area put in a marathon effort when they raised thousands of pounds for charity by competing in Sunday's Flora London Marathon.

Despite the energy-sapping conditions, a number of residents from the town took part in the gruelling event, jogging past famous landmarks including the Tower of London and the Houses of Parliament before crossing the finishing line of the 26.2-mile course in The Mall.

Will Shoults (52), of Wedgewood Drive, Harlow, ran the marathon for Breast Cancer Campaign in honour of his sister Maria, who has the disease, and crossed the finish line in 3hours 53minutes.

"It was just terrific," he told the Star.

"I have run London before, but this time there seemed to be more support than ever and more people running than previous years.

"I had a stitch at one point and had to bury my hand in my side and bend over, which probably made me look a bit odd, but I managed to shake it off in the end and finish the course."

Steve Hulcoop (64) of Five Acres, Harlow, was featured live on television after managing to skip and stand on his head at various points on his way round. He crossed the line in 4 hours and 51 minutes, raising about £2,000 for Operation Food Aid Zimbabwe.

The sense of occasion wasn't lost on Tony Galvani (45) of Bentley Drive, Harlow, despite him picking up a painful achilles injury just 10 miles in.

Though gritted teeth and thanks to tremendous support, he completed the marathon in 5hours 45 minutes to raise cash for Macmillan Cancer Support.

"It was unbelievable and was an experience I will never forget," he said.

"The whole day was worth the pain – it really was an incredible experience."

Alan Wise (40) of Roden Close, Old Harlow, raised £900 for the British Heart Foundation by running the course in a very impressive 3hours 8minutes.

It was his third London Marathon and he chose the charity because close family members have been affected by cardiovascular disease.

"I am very pleased with how it went," he said.

"I wanted to get under three hours, but it was just too hot."

Offer of help over debts

THE Harlow and district branch of nationwide charity the Debt Advice Network is urging people who need financial advice to give it a call.

Specialist advisors are on hand to help people who have rent arrears, mortgage problems, are facing repossession or who have mounting debt problems in free one-to-one sessions.

Spokesman Lee Venables said: "We need to get the message out there to people that there is help available, as the Citizens' Advice Bureau is inundated and it can take over two months for an appointment."

The charity covers Harlow, Epping, Bishop's Stortford, Sawbridgeworth and Takeley.

Anyone interested in seeking the services on offer should call (01279) 874221.

Church open for the day

HUNDREDS of people are expected to flock to Great Saint Mary's Church, in Sawbridgeworth, when it opens its doors for an annual discovery day.

The church will be open from 12.30-4pm on Sunday to host a range of exhibits and events, including tours of the bell-ringing chamber from 1.30-3.30pm, activities for children, a display of vestments and finery, food and crafts, flower arranging demonstrations and bell-ringing from noon-1pm.

The day will end with a short service at 5pm.

History tour for visitors

A GROUP of overseas volunteers were treated to a day trip to The Museum Of Harlow when they visited the town as part of a voluntary service scheme.

The party of 18 youngsters, who are all attached to local charity and voluntary groups, took in Harlow's history during the guided tour, in which they also listened to a talk.

The group were staying in Harlow and Bishop's Stortford during a trip from Kurdistan.

Abseiling challenge

DAREDEVIL fundraisers will head for Church Langley water tower this weekend for a charity abseil.

The annual event, organised by the Harlow Tye Rotary Club, hopes to raise more than £50,000 for good causes.

Participants will be attempting the 110ft descent on Saturday and Sunday.

Halfon backing Mecca cash-for-phones appeal

HARLOW'S prospective Conservative Parliamentary candidate Robert Halfon helped launch a new campaign to turn unwanted mobile phones into cash to support the independence of young wheelchair users. Each phone given to Mecca Bingo's Mobiles For Mobility appeal means a £3 donation to children's mobility charity Whizz-Kidz.

Phones do not have to work but must not be beyond economical repair or have been reported as barred, lost or stolen. Mecca Harlow general manager, Bernie Dullaghan, said: "It's fantastic to have Mr Halfon's support and we thank him for helping us to bring attention to the launch of this campaign. The Mobiles For Mobility activity is a great way for people to take a mobile phone they no longer need or use and transform it into much-needed funds for kids in the region."

The three-month fundraiser is being run at all Mecca Bingo halls in the country. Last year, Mecca raised more than £280,000 for Whizz-Kidz.

Charity chief executive, Ruth Owen, added: "Disabled children stand virtually no chance of getting a powered wheelchair on the NHS. Through Mecca Bingo's funding of powered and manual wheelchairs and training, more children now have the opportunities previously denied them."

Head's shock after thieves target school

By LOUISE SASSOON News Editor
sassoona@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A SICKENED headteacher is urging the community to shop thieves who have carried out a series of raids on his school.

Passmore in Tendring Road, Harlow, has been broken into four times in three months, and up to seven times in the past year, by crooks suspected to be living in the area.

The latest break-in occurred in the early hours of Tuesday morning, when the music department and library were smashed into and trashed by thieves, who appeared to be familiar with the building.

"It just sickens me to the pit of my stomach," said Vic Goddard, head teacher.

"The worst thing is that this is obviously somebody who knows the school well. Everybody has worked hard towards making this a better place and school, but people from the community are stealing and making life difficult.

"We need to all look after each other, and if anybody knows who is responsible for this I would urge them to tell police. Our central ethos at the school is one community, one building, one purpose and that is how we really feel."

Police and scenes of crimes officers were at the school on Tuesday looking for clues. It is hoped CCTV which covers the entire grounds will have captured the culprits.

Although only one computer was stolen from the music department, doors had been kicked down and areas trashed as the thieves made their way around the department causing thousands of pounds worth of damage so severe music lessons for hundreds of pupils to be cancelled the following day.

The library, which had a new computer suite fitted on Monday, was also damaged and one computer stolen but dumped outside the building when the thieves were thought to have been disturbed.

Mr Goddard added: "Somebody is out there stopping our children from learning and it makes me sick. I can't help but take it personally and whoever has done this has targeted each and every young person here personally."

● If you have information about the break-ins call Harlow police on 0300 333 4444.

GRITTY ROLE: Harlow actor Prem Sharma is no stranger to the film business (photo: HAR0549039)

The shifty side of Prem's character

A BUDDING actor from Harlow has been rubbing shoulders with the stars after being cast in a gritty new British film.

Musician and actor Prem Sharma (34) stars as a one of the three main henchmen who are the archenemies of the main character in Shifty.

The British urban thriller, nominated for five BIFA's (British Independent Film Awards), follows a young drug dealer over 24 hours as he comes to terms with friendship and loyalty after his childhood friend reappears.

It was released at selected cinemas last week after being completed on a shoestring budget of £100,000 by former Harlow resident Eran Creevy.

Mr Sharma, of Finchmoor, said: "It was amazing to do. We got to shoot at the Elstree Studios which is where Eastenders is filmed.

"We all got to know each other really well on the set, it was mad at times. Once I turned round and there was Jason Flemyng, who starred in Snatch, sweeping the floor!"

Mr Sharma is no stranger to the film business, having been nominated for a prestigious best actor award at the BFM International Film Festival for his part in the short film, Morally Speaking, in 2005.

He also recorded a song under his musician name, Rich Beggar, for the Shifty soundtrack.

He added: "I can't believe we completed it on such a small budget - even adverts get more than we did!"

Police arrest man after early hours indecent assault claim

POLICE are investigating after a woman was allegedly indecently assaulted as she returned from a night out with friends in Harlow.

The 19-year-old, who for legal reasons cannot be identified, was walking home from Quattroz nightclub in the early hours of Saturday morning when she was said to have been approached by a man who dragged her into a car park.

The attacker then pulled down the woman's trousers and underwear before the teenager managed to escape and raise the alarm.

Speaking to the Star, the woman's boyfriend said the teenager had been badly shaken by the incident, which was said to have occurred at about 3am.

A police spokesman said: "Police are investigating an alleged indecent assault in Harlow. Officers were called shortly after 3am on Saturday, April 25, by a 19-year-old woman who said she had been assaulted in Post Office Road.

"A 22-year-old man from the town was arrested in connection with the allegations a few hours later and was bailed until Wednesday, May 6, pending further inquiries."

Business leaders defend hub as just 13 firms move in HARLOW'S much-vaunted business incubation centre has been defended this week after figures show it is some way off a 12-month target for company start-ups.

Just five months after Government business secretary Peter Mandelson opened the Enterprise Hub in Edinburgh Way, just 13 firms have let office space.

The figure equates to 17 per cent of the total space available – way off the 50 to 70 per cent hoped to be filled by the end of the first year.

But NWES, the company running the hub, and others involved in delivering the scheme which was built using part of a £10m Growth Area Fund grant from the Government, say the news is far from disappointing.

Denying the centre was a waste of money and built at the wrong time during a recession, Monica Bell, business development manager at Harlow's NWES, said she was hopeful most of the units would be full by next year and added that the hub was not just about providing office space but offering advice, support and network opportunities to small firms to help them grow and support them though the tough economic climate.

"To be frank, one can't expect most of the units to be full in just a few months, but what I can say is in comparison to other situations and by talking to people in the town, there is a real buzz and interest [in the hub]," she said.

Harlow Council leader Andrew Johnson is also up-beat about the hub's success so far, saying the take up of office space was good while Andrew Bramidge, chief executive of Harlow Renaissance which managed the project to transform the 1960s Great Eastern House on Edinburgh Way, is also happy with how things are going.

Hospice lottery on brink of collapse

JOB DONE! Andrew Temperton, managing director of Bermac Properties, with Sir George Cooper at the opening of Mulberry House (photo: HAR0549502)

Delight as Mulberry emerges from ashes

A LISTED building which was ravaged by fire has been restored to its former glory. Dozens of guests were invited to the official opening of Mulberry House in Mulberry Green, Old Harlow, three years after developers were given the go-ahead to transform it into apartments and houses.

The finished product was unveiled to the public on Friday by representatives from Bermac Properties.

Andrew Temperton, managing director of Bermac said the company was delighted to open the house adding: "It has been an interesting and sensitive restoration and re-development project, injecting a whole new lease of life into the original house and grounds."

"The properties bring a refreshing choice of restored and new build options to Old Harlow where we have used traditional materials in keeping with the local conservation area."

A VITAL fundraising project for a much-needed hospice may be forced to fold after falling victim to the recession.

Thousands of pounds for St Clare Hospice has been lost because hard-up residents are struggling to back an in-house lottery scheme during the economic down turn.

The fundraiser has lost nearly half its participants, hitting the Hastingwood charity hard in the pocket and threatening to hamper its money-making efforts on which it relies heavily.

Sue Upton, director of fundraising said: "We have seen a dramatic loss of people playing our weekly lottery in the last few months."

"Currently we have just under 3,000 players each week, which is significantly down since our peak in 2003, when nearly 5,700 people were playing."

"This means the lottery is generating around £2,500-£2,700 less a week than it used to and it would appear that it is the recession that is affecting it so badly. Players, many of whom have been with us for years, are calling to say they have to stop because of the current economic climate."

By LOUISE SASSOON News Editor
sassoona@hertsexnews.co.uk

Players are entered into a prize draw in which they can win £1,000 in cash and other prizes. Since it started 10 years ago the lottery has generated £2m and has helped the charity foot the annual £1.75m bill it has to pay each year to keep the hospice open offering free treatment to people with life-limiting illnesses.

Mrs Upton added: "The situation is, if we can't stop this sad decline and generate more lottery members then we will seriously have to look at financial feasibility of this income stream, which would be devastating especially as it has been running for so long and around 20 per cent of the players have been with us since the first draw."

"If our weekly lottery were to collapse we would have a £38,000 gap in our funding this year – that is enough to provide our day therapy service for 10 weeks so it is a huge gap. We urgently need local people to sign up to our lottery to avoid this happening."

To sign up to the lottery call weekday mornings on (01279) 773730 or log onto www.stclare-hospice.co.uk/hospice-lottery to find out more or download an application form.

Do you know them?

THE mystery pictures we have been running in Nostalgia in recent weeks have generated quite a response from readers.

So to carry on the enjoyment, we ask if anyone knows where, when and, crucially, why this photograph was taken and who is in it.

Perhaps you are one of the people in the photograph or know where it was taken and why?

Let us know by writing to Nostalgia, 6 West Gate, Harlow CM20 1JW or email sassoonl@hertsessexnews.co.uk.

Towering landmark of estate

MOST residents will be familiar with the landmark structure which looms large over Harlow as you approach the town on the M11.

But many may not realise why the architectural phenomenon of Church Langley water tower exists. Opened in May 1994, which makes it a relatively recent item to be featured in Nostalgia, the 30ft concrete structure is so prominent that even its short history merits attention.

David Devine, local history officer at The Museum of Harlow, was one of those invited to the opening ceremony, at which MP Peter Bottomley cut the ribbon to declare the tower open.

"It was an experience and quite something at the time," he told Nostalgia. "It looks nothing like the water tower was going to originally, that was more of an upside-down ice cream cone. "However, it was something of a landmark building to be opened in Harlow at the time

By LOUISE SASSOON
News Editor
sassoonl@hertsessexnews.co.uk

because it was so distinctive and there was a sense of occasion, saying 'yes, this area known as Church Langley has arrived and this is the building to prove it'.

"The view from the top is stunning because you could see the landscape of the area forming and you could see for miles in the other direction over the M11."

The tower holds two million litres of water, serving the Church Langley development.

It was built out of necessity after the estate's developers realised the existing tower at Rye Hill would not be able to serve thousands more homes and guests to the opening ceremony were treated to a water tasting exercise before trudging the 110 steps to the top.

At the opening, Three Valleys Water chairman Sir John Page said: "We think this water tower is dynamic, exciting and modern."

Susan's school sojourn

A REQUEST arrives from Susan Stephenson (nee Hudson) who is asking for memories of Harlow in the 1970s.

"I used to live in Brocksleas Mead in Harlow but I moved to the north-east when I was 12 years old," she writes.

"I am looking to catch up and show my son some of the places I used to go to when I was younger but I have found it difficult to find out any information on the school I used to attend, Kingsmoor Junior.

"Mr Collins was the headmaster when I left back in about 1978/79 and I am looking for photographs, or anything, that I can show my son from this time."

If you can help Susan, write to Nostalgia, 6 West Gate, Harlow or send an email to sassoonl@hertsessexnews.co.uk.

From the pages of the Harlow Star 25 years ago

BOAT RALLY FURY

Bad river dredging by the British Water Ways Board put a damper on Harlow's long-awaited Bank Holiday Boat Rally at the Moorhen leisure complex.

More than 50 angry boat owners are lodging a formal complaint over the state of the river, which saw boats run aground.

STRIKE CLOSES SCHOOLS

All eight secondary schools in Harlow closed yesterday as members of the largest teachers' union staged a national one-day strike.

Thirteen of the town's 36 primary schools were also closed, but some schools remained open for pupils to sit exams.

RATS, MICE AND RUBBISH

Rats and mice are feeding off Harlow's rubbish, which is being left uncollected in the streets for up to three weeks.

And despite an agreement between the council and dustmen for new working rotas earlier in the year, people are still having to take rubbish to the tip themselves.

College students hear harrowing tales of life in a Nazi death camp

HARLOW COLLEGE: Students were given an extraordinary insight into life under Nazi rule by a survivor of the Holocaust.

Kitty Hart Moxon (81) led a talk in the Glassbox Theatre about her experiences in the notorious concentration camp at Auschwitz.

The talk was set up by the Holocaust Education Trust, a project established in 1988 to educate young people about the holocaust, and ensure that it never happens again.

Kitty, who was a teenager when the Second World War broke out, told students about the night she and her mother were told they were being sent to Auschwitz.

"We had been charged on three counts of having documents that didn't belong to us, entering Germany illegally and being Jewish," she said. "All of these were punishable by death."

"We were taken to the courtyard and made to face the wall. The firing squad came out with their machine guns and we all heard shots fired."

"However, these shots had been fired into the air and we were told they were not going to shoot us. Instead we were given life imprisonment in Auschwitz."

She was also made to work in Auschwitz II, known as the extermination camp, where she was told to sort out the clothes that victims were told to leave behind before being taken to the gas chambers.

Both Kitty and her mother were freed from the camp on April 11, 1944.

Schools celebrate national exam successes

THUMBS UP: Head girl Hayley Archer and head boy Budd Birkett with Burnt Mill's certificate

TWO schools in Harlow are celebrating this week after being named among the top performers in the country.

BURNT MILL was recognised as one of the best in terms of year-on-year improvements in examination performance.

Pupils' results at GCSE A*-C grades, including English and Mathematics, have improved each year between 2005 and 2008 by 10 percentage points or more.

The results put the school in joint 21st place out of 153 schools listed as making this kind of improvement.

Assistant head teacher, Paul Williams, said: "This is a remarkably consistent achievement and is a great testament to the hard work by students and staff and the support parents provide to the school."

The Specialist Schools and Academies Trust has presented the school with a framed certificate in recognition of the achievement by the students.

"The challenge is there for the next four years of students to maintain this trend, so the bar has been set high for the future," said Mr Williams.

Meanwhile, staff and pupils at HOLY CROSS

THUMBS UP: MP Bill Rammell, back, right, congratulates staff and pupils of Holy Cross Primary School, from left, teacher Jan Kent, pupils Siobhan Scanlan, Philip Duffy, Katie Day and Melissa Selwood, headteacher Sue McGuiggan and pupils Wendy Kamau and Ethan Rickards

PRIMARY welcomed a special visitor when Harlow MP Bill Rammell dropped in to congratulate the school after it, too, was named as one of the best performing schools in the country for achieving continued year-on-year improvements in SAT examination results since 2005.

Headteacher Sue McGuiggan said: "We are very proud of this achievement and it could not have been done without the school, parents and children all working together."

"It is an achievement shared by the whole school community."

They went head-to-head answering a range of questions on topics including sport and science, with the Harlow school running out the eventual winners by a margin of six points, 35-29.

The winning team was presented with a shield to mark their success, along with the added prize of £300 of education vouchers.

Traffic: lasting solution needed

SIR, Perhaps Adrian Deeks (Star, April 23) can explain how moving the congestion further into Harlow along the old A11 path might be of any benefit. The congestion already, and too frequently, makes it impossible for cars to get out of Church Langley.

The fundamental problem remains whatever is done to the road linking the roundabouts at Hastingwood, Southern Way, the Clock Tower and Gates; the fact is the roads can't cope with the volume of traffic travelling westwards through or to the commercial areas to the west of the town. Dualling all or parts of this route also ignores the problem of getting through Sawbridgeworth, already difficult either way.

There also remains the problems for traffic trying to access the M11 on the other side of town along the A414 from the Hertford, Hoddesdon direction, hence Mr Halfon's campaign. A piecemeal approach will cost a lot and solve nothing.

If the Conservatives support a relief road to the east of the town and the Labour government wants to spend money to the west, might there be something in considering the two issues and building a proper bypass?

My remarks concerning the course of the M11 were based on information from someone who was involved in planning this area and the original planning of the route of the M11. I was told many years ago that when Harlow was built the railway and industrial areas were placed mainly on the east of the town with the view that this would link to London and Cambridge and towns to the west.

However, some years later it seems the residents of Roydon managed to convince the Department of Transport that the ground was not geologically suitable for the M11 and would pose costly engineering solutions if that route was chosen.

Also of interest is that 'Plan B' was apparently to dual the A414 through the middle of the town, hence the extra width of Second Avenue and the roads on towards the Pinnacles. This was opposed by town residents on the grounds that it would cut the town in two.

We need to remember that, whatever the history, we still have the problem of increasing congestion in the town and need a comprehensive solution which will see us well into the future.

It is significant that no one in office who was involved in planning the currently proposed scheme has taken the trouble to reply through your columns to explain the rationale of the scheme to the taxpayers who will pay for it.

E. J. Vine
Fenton Grange, Harlow

Self-policing is not the answer

SIR, I write with great concern regarding the volunteers thinking of patrolling Harlow and our crime-ridden streets of shame.

I think it is commendable of Mr Aran Black to think of patrolling the town with unpaid volunteers, similar to the red beret Guardian Angels we had in London many years ago, but does this not show us the police are either incapable or simply failing to do the job we citizens pay them to do?

Equally it clearly shows us the absolute waste of taxpayers' money spent on the plastic security guards in police uniform (otherwise known as PCSOs) and the council

Be careful who you give your clothes to

SIR, I would like to raise the issue of the number of clothing merchants who are flooding the area with collection bags.

I am the manager of the Age Concern/Help The Aged charity shop in Harlow and employ a driver who distributes bags to supply our shop. These bags are then brought to the shop and the clothing and bric-a-brac sold to raise money for our cause.

However, his job is being made increasingly difficult by the number of commercial clothing firms who are putting out bags requesting clothing and promising to make a donation to charity. I am concerned that a tried and tested system of getting donations into our local shops has been cynically hijacked by these firms.

Donations collected by us (and other genuine charities in the area) will be used to the maximum benefit, with clothes being steam ironed and put up for sale. If they do not sell they may be transferred between shops to try elsewhere. Only at the end of this process, when it is clear the clothing is not desirable, will it be ragged and added to the pile of worn out or damaged clothing that it is not possible to sell to the public.

At that point, it is sold to clothing merchants, but the money made from this is minimal compared to a retail value.

Now here comes the problem for the shops. The clothing merchants, mostly from outside the area, are now posting out thousands of bags - mostly with pictures of children or animals on the front to pull at the heartstrings - and offer to make a donation to a seemingly random charity. These firms have no retail outlets and, therefore, will be getting a small percentage value per bag, compared to charities with retail shops in the town.

Charity shops employ local people and volunteers. They also provide valuable work experience for younger people and are a vital part of the town trade, but they rely on donations. I would urge people to continue to have faith in the system of doorstep collections by vans, but even more strongly, I urge people to think about who they are giving their clothing to.

Please support your local charity workers; if a bag has been posted through your door, does it correspond to a local shop in your town? Please do not give your clothes to the rag merchants at the expense of local charities.

Finally, I would like to say a huge thank you to everyone who supports the Age Concern/Help The Aged shop in West Gate, Harlow. Thank you for filling our bags for our driver to collect from your home and for your generosity by way of donations of both clothing and bric-a-brac which arrives through our door.

Debbie Salmon, shop manager
Age Concern/Help The Aged, West Gate, Harlow

enforcers invented by Harlow Council, if we now have to have volunteer crime fighters on the streets. As we all know, the drunken, drug-taking thugs who plague our town, hunting in packs like rats, do not care about attacking door staff, police, ambulance staff and even fire fighters.

So does Mr Black really think they are going to think twice about attacking his unpaid volunteers, who will be become targets for the imbeciles intent on causing trouble?

The police are supposed to be highly trained and carry CS gas, batons, stun guns and handcuffs, but we have seen so many times what can happen to them, with male and female officers attacked without any hesitation whatsoever. What training will these volunteers have to deal with the thugs they will come across? What vetting will take place to ensure the thugs themselves are not employed? Will they be Government-licensed? Will they be covered by insurance were they to intervene in violent conflicts and possibly lose life or limb, or if they were to cause death or injury themselves?

As we have read on so many occasions of a public-spirited person trying to detain a thug, the tables are often turned and the have-a-go hero themselves has been prosecuted for some offence.

Common and criminal law is open to interpretation, so when you deal with a highly intelligent and trained tongue-twisting barrister defending the thug, you stand no chance. Maybe the courts giving the correct custodial sentences for crimes committed would also help.

Bus driver was in correct lane

SIR, What a shame Tony Treacher wasn't paying attention to the road markings at the Potter Street and A414 roundabout (Letters, April 23).

If he had he would have seen that the bus was in the correct lane to cross the roundabout and was following the markings of the lane it was in. Pity he wasn't paying due care and attention to his surroundings as the bus driver was.

Are dino fossils the missing link?

DINOSAUR fossils recently discovered in China may provide the missing link between the ferocious Tyrannosaurus Rex and its smaller ancestors.

The remains, which were found in the Gobi Desert near the city of Jiayuguan, are from a type of tyrannosaur called Xiongguanlong Baimoensis.

That name may be a bit of a mouthful but it is thought the fossils could help scientists learn much more about one of the most fearsome predators ever to have walked on the surface of the Earth.

The fossils are thought to be 100 million years old and show early signs of features that became more developed in later tyrannosaurs, whose name means 'tyrant lizard', like a box-shaped skull and a stronger spine to support the beast's huge head and jaws. Dinosaur experts, known as palaeontologists, have worked out that it had 70 teeth, stood five feet tall and weighed almost a third of a ton. Current knowledge about the tyrannosaur family is based on two groups of fossils from different parts of the Cretaceous period.

One group dates from the early part – about 145 million years ago – while the other is from tens of millions of years later. Up until now, it has been difficult for experts to find the links between the two groups, but scientists are now confident they can fill in the gaps in the evolutionary chain.

Festival flies the flag in English celebration

ONE ACT PLAY FESTIVAL
Harlow Theatre Company
Victoria Hall Theatre, Old Harlow

FOR many people, St George's Day has become little more than an excuse to down buckets of overpriced foreign lager.

But for those attending Harlow Theatre Company's stunning feast of English drama, it became a means of exploring very different notions of Englishness presented by four of the country's most celebrated playwrights.

The festival began with Alan Bennett's tragicomic monologue A Chip In The Sugar, in which HTC stalwart Bernard Moule gave a hilarious, moving and ultimately heartbreaking performance as Guardian-reading, sandal-wearing, closet homosexual Graham, whose struggles with an unnamed mental illness have consigned him to a lonely existence living with his ageing mother.

But Graham's comfortable life is disrupted when she bumps into old flame Frank Turnbull, a right-wing, racist bigot who threatens to break the bond between mother and son, only for the increasingly exasperated Graham to be granted a last-minute reprieve that ruins his fragile mother's last shot at happiness. Harold Pinter's gritty and provocative One For The Road is a shocking piece of agitprop theatre which projects the stark realities of systematic human rights violations by totalitarian regimes onto the backdrop of a seemingly civilised, implicitly English setting.

Paul Johnson's astonishing performance as the calmly sadistic, egotistical boss of an unnamed military organisation holding

Showtime special for town's talented youngsters

THE cream of Harlow's talented crop of young dancers, actors and musicians lit up The Playhouse with an all-singing, all-dancing stage spectacular on Tuesday.

Organised in recognition and celebration of the dedication of local youngsters from arts organisations funded by the charitable Jack Petchey Foundation, the annual Arts Showcase began with some contemporary dance courtesy of Essex Dance Theatre.

There then followed a beautifully choreographed scene from Harlow Ballet Association's recent production of The Nutcracker and an impressive group-devised dance performance by inclusive theatre company, Razed Roof.

The Playhouse's resident dance school Hip Hop Pop took to the stage in a flurry of body-popping street dance routines, followed by former theatre boss Phil Dale's Phoenix Theatre School, with an adaptation of Brothers Grimm tale Little Red Cap.

Music fans were treated to some blistering punk-pop performed by talented young musicians from The Square's Rock School and local theatre group Livewire performed an excerpt from their impressive self-penned Easter production Ordinary Life.

Harlow Steelband wrapped up the evening's entertainment with an intriguing take on some modern chart-toppers, culminating in a spectacular Motown Medley.

and torturing a young family of political dissenters made for disturbing yet compulsive viewing, while brilliantly understated contributions from Richard Parsley, Kate Millner and William Johnson as the imprisoned family acutely portrayed palpable senses of fear, desperation and desolation.

The evening continued with a second Pinter piece, quickfire tragicomic sketch The Black & White in which Sarah Wiggins and Stella O'Shaughnessy played two homeless women engaged in an innocuous conversation over soup and bread that was as mirthful as it was melancholy.

A quintessentially English piece of absurdist theatre from surrealist playwright N.F. Simpson came next, in which Ian Stacey gave a hysterical performance as an overzealous visitor to the rather ordinary home of the Brandywines, slavishly and nonsensically inspecting everything from the door handles to Mr Brandywine's kidneys.

Rounding the evening off perfectly was a laugh-out-loud funny adaptation of Black and Silver, Michael Frayn's hilarious study of a couple's changing relationship following the birth of their first child.

Jim Thompson and Jane Prangall were a match made in a somewhat vindictive heaven as the couple staying with their newborn in the Venetian hotel room where they spent their honeymoon, only for their supposedly restful holiday to be blighted by the cries of their baby and a particularly amorous couple next door. Skilfully exploring the brighter and uglier shades of human nature in a peculiarly English way, this was a festival of contrasts both joyous and disquieting, but always brutally honest in its celebration of our gleefully divergent heritage.

arts diary

MUSIC: Cambridge's 'Mr Jazz', multi-instrumentalist Tim Phillips, presents an intoxicating evening of Dixieland, swing, New Orleans jazz and skiffle at St John's ARC in Old Harlow tonight (Thursday). The show, which also features young guitarist Jonathan Graham invoking the spirit of Django Rheinhardt with some sizzling Gypsy Jazz, begins at 8pm. Tickets cost £10 and are available on (01406) 365731.

MUSICAL: The Playhouse hosts a fabulously fun musical tomorrow (Friday) when the People's Theatre Company brings its acclaimed family-friendly production Bink & The Hairy Fairy to Harlow. Can heroic elf Bink single-handedly save his people from the devious Lord Murkor's evil plans or will he need the help of a magical (and extremely hairy) friend? Pop along to the 7pm performance to find out! Tickets cost £10 (£8 concessions) from (01279) 431945.

MUSIC: The Alberni String Quartet return to their spiritual home of St John's ARC on Saturday for a second spring concert, featuring a choice selection of stirring compositions by Mozart, Puccini and Janáček. The evening begins at 8pm and tickets cost £15 (£12 concessions) from (01279) 442447.

sound check with chris moss

TAKE the delta blues out of Mississippi, ply it with gallons of strong English ale and send it out into Hatfield Forest late at night with a shotgun, some firewood and a two-string guitar, and it'll probably start to sound something like the warped gypsy-folk of tribly-wearing troubadour Jonas Graile.

Yes, he may faintly resemble a forgotten member of The Levellers, but his style is less tree-hugging crusty than besuited English eccentric with a fine collection of rather dusty hats – a brilliantly bonkers, borderline Vaudeville look which fits nicely with his twisted skiffle-blues laments.

With the kind of grizzled

BAND: Jonas Graile
FROM: Deepest, darkest Essex
SOUNDS LIKE: The delta blues reborn in an English hog-garden
WEBSITE:
www.myspace.com/jonasgraile

blues growl usually nurtured through years of whiskey, cigarettes and despair, it's quite astonishing that Graile is only in his mid-20s, and it's his rich, earthy tones coupled with impossibly sharp, world-weary lyricism that really elevate his sound above your average lapsed bluesman.

But far from, say, Eric Clapton's contradictory approximation of the primal blues – all imagined dusty roads and romantic cotton-fields – Graile is more interested in writing songs of experience, creating a weird and wonderful netherworld where scantily-clad Essex girls frolic gaily on the Mississippi delta.

● Graile plans to hypnotise The Square tomorrow (Friday) night, when he shares a fittingly diverse bill with Gazzy Roxx, Pennyroyal and The Feelmores.

Mutant Wolverine carves out a slice of old history

X-MEN ORIGINS: WOLVERINE
certificate 12A, running time 1h47m

HUGH Jackman sharpens his retractable adamantium claws in this spin-off from the X-Men films, expanding the back story of the franchise's most popular and enigmatic character.

James Howlett (Jackman) and his best friend Victor Creed (Liev Schreiber) abandon mid-19th century Canada to take up arms in the American Civil War, fighting on behalf of the north.

Both are blessed with mutant powers and the friends (aka Wolverine and Sabretooth) endure the hell of war unscathed, going on to prove their worth against the Germans in two world wars, before supporting Uncle Sam in Vietnam.

This final tour of duty leads to a spell in a covert US government operation, alongside other gifted mutants, including gravity-defying sharp-shooter David North aka Agent Zero (Daniel Henney), the shape- and mass-shifting Fred Dukes aka The Blob (Kevin Durand), master fighter Wade Wilson aka Deadpool (Ryan Reynolds), teleporter extraordinaire John Wraith aka Kestrel (Will I Am) and Barnell Bohusk aka Beak (Dominic Monaghan), who can make technology do his bidding.

Compelled to leave the fold, Wolverine (now named Logan) tries to forge a life away from the program but the men in charge refuse to let their prize asset leave without a fight.

Six years pass until shadowy former commander General Stryker shows up and asks Logan to come back and be a part of a new Weapon X project.

Logan refuses but Creed shows up and murders his girlfriend; burning for revenge, he accepts Stryker's offer to be infused with adamantium so he can become effectively indestructible.

BORN AGAIN!: Hugh Jackman stars as the superpowered mutant in X-Men Origins: Wolverine (S)

CRANK 2: HIGH VOLTAGE The continued adventures of bruiser Chev Chelios (Jason Statham), who has a very bad day when a Chinese mobster rips out his heart and installs a battery-operated ticker in its place. Fists and obscenities fly as Statham hooks himself up to various power supplies amidst a blitzkrieg of gun battles, fight sequences and pole dancing.

I LOVE YOU, MAN Los Angeles estate agent Peter Klaven is head over heels in love with his long-term girlfriend Zoey. He proposes and she excitedly accepts but, lacking a circle of male friends to call upon as best man and ushers, he nervously embarks on a series of 'man dates' to find new drinking buddies, with encouragement and guidance from his gay brother.

FAST AND FURIOUS Original stars Vin Diesel and Paul Walker return in a preposterous tale of revenge and redemption. With cars.

RACE TO WITCH MOUNTAIN A former small-time crook finds hiding in his cab are aliens, trying to save their dying planet.

17 AGAIN Middle-aged Mike tumbles over a bridge and into a whirlpool, magically changing into his 17-year-old self again in the process.

MONSTERS VS ALIENS 3D Animation in which Earth's native monsters are wheeled out to fight an alien invasion.

THE BOAT THAT ROCKED Richard Curtis froth about musical piracy on the high seas, inspired by the story of Radio Caroline.

Decision time for pop princess

HANNAH MONTANA – THE MOVIE
certificate U, running time 1h42m

THE Disney Channel's phenomenally popular Hannah Montana transformed Miley Cyrus into a teen pin-up virtually overnight when the series debuted in 2006.

Last year's inaugural cinema outing, Hannah Montana & Miley Cyrus: Best Of Both Worlds Concert, cemented the popularity of the teenager and her fictitious alter-ego, splicing stage performances with backstage footage. Now, Miley returns to the big screen in the perky pop princess's first dramatic feature, searching for love in this sentimental rites of passage drama, interspersed with thigh-slapping musical sequences.

The film is drizzled with sentiment and peppered with wholesome values, promoting the family unit and the value of enduring friendship ahead of material wealth.

Each narrative twist and turn is clearly signposted, giving the target teen audience plenty of time to get their tissues ready as Hannah makes the most important decision of her life.

When Miley loses sight of her humble beginnings, her father drags her back home under false pretences to Crowley Corners, Tennessee, where her grandmother Ruby welcomes her with open arms.

When an evil developer threatens the quiet of Crowley Corners, childhood crush Travis suggests a benefit concert fronted by Hannah Montana.

Can Miley juggle her twin identities and evade the roving lens of British paparazzo Oswald Granger (Peter Gunn)?

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

PUBLIC NOTICES

Public NoticesINSOLVENCY ACT 1986 IN BANKRUPTCY

A Bankruptcy Order has been made in the undermentioned Court against the following (note: all debts due to the estate should be paid to me):

HERTFORD COUNTY COURT
No. 206 of 2009 RE: BARBARA ANN JONES a Sales Office Assistant residing at 307 Carters Mead, Harlow, Essex CM17 9EZ and lately of 15 Potter Street, Harlow, Essex CM17 9AE
- on 2 April 2009

Mr A Hannon, Official Receiver, 2nd Floor, Abbeygate House, 164-167 East Road, Cambridge CB1 1DB

Public NoticesEssex County Council*MAINTAINED SCHOOL ADMISSION ARRANGEMENTS

In accordance with The School Admissions (Admission Arrangements) (England) Regulations 2008, this Notice is to confirm that at the time of going to press the admission arrangements of 465 of the 545 maintained schools and 3 of the 5 Academies in Essex have been determined for the academic year 2010/11. All admission authorities are required by law to have determined their admission arrangements by 15 April 2009. The determined admission arrangements can be viewed on the Council's website via www.essex.gov.uk/admissions, or are available for inspection at individual schools and at School Planning and Admissions, County Hall, Chelmsford, Essex. CM1 1GS.

Objections to admission arrangements

Parents are now able to object to determined admission arrangements as set out below:

1. A parent resident in the administrative area of Essex with a child of compulsory school age at primary school can object to pre-existing selection arrangements, that is the arrangements for the selection of pupils by reference to ability or aptitude which existed in 1997/98 and each subsequent year;
2. A parent resident in the administrative area of Essex with a child aged between 2 and 5 or with a child of compulsory school age at primary school can object if the Published Admission Number (PAN) for a school is lower than the Indicated Admission Number (IAN);
3. A parent of a child aged between 2 and 5, or of compulsory school age at primary or secondary school can object that any aspect of a school's determined admission arrangements does not comply with the mandatory provisions of the DCSF School Admissions Code or Part 3 of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998.

Such objections should be referred to the Office of the Schools' Adjudicator, Mowden Hall, Staindrop Road, Darlington, DL3 9BG by 31 July 2009. Objections in relation to the admission arrangements of Academies must be referred directly to the Secretary of State for Children, Schools and Families, House of Commons, London, SW1A 0AA.

Essex County Council being the admission authority for the following primary/ secondary schools has determined admission numbers for the admission of pupils to the relevant year group* in the academic year 2010/11 which are lower than the Indicated Admission Number set by the net capacity formula.

School	Year Group	Indicated Admission Number	Admission Number
Church Langley Primary School	R	61	60
Paringdon Junior School	3	54	50
Purford Green Primary School	R	42	30
Spinney Junior School	R	67	60
Passmores School and Technology College	7	195	180

*The year group in which pupils are normally admitted to the school. R = reception; 3 = Year 3; 7 = Year 7.

The reasons for determining admission numbers that are lower than those indicated by the net capacity formula for admissions to these schools in 2010/11 are as follows:

Church Langley Primary School

The admission numbers for this school has been determined at 60 in order to comply with the infant class size limit. (See below.)

Paringdon Junior School

The admission number has been determined at a level that can accommodate forecast demand for places from within the school's priority admissions area and from children with a sibling already attending the school or the partner infant school.

Purford Green Primary School

Purford Green Infant and Purford Green Junior School amalgamated as Purford Green Primary School from the 1 January 2009. The admission number for Purford Green Primary School has been determined at a level that can accommodate forecast demand for places from within the school's priority admissions area and from children with a sibling already attending the school. It will also enable the school to comply with the infant class size limit. (See below.)

Spinney Junior School

The admission number has been determined at a level that can accommodate forecast demand for places from within the school's priority admissions area and from children with a sibling already attending the school or the partner infant school.

Passmores School and Technology College

The admission number has been determined at a level that will enable the school to effectively organise on six forms of entry of 30 students per form in Year 7. The school also admitted additional pupils to Years 9 and 10 in September 2008 following the closure of Brays Grove School.

The adjudicator is only required to determine an objection referred by a parent relating to an admission number for any relevant age group which is lower than the indicated admission number for that age group if not less than 10 eligible parents have referred objections, or one or more such objections jointly, which are about the same admission arrangements and raise the same or substantially the same issue.

For further information you may contact: School Planning and Admissions, Essex County Council, PO BOX 4261, County Hall, Chelmsford, CM1 1GS; telephone Contact Essex: 0845 603 2200 or e-mail admissions@essex.gov.uk

Signed: Graham Tombs,

Executive Director for Schools, Children and Families

Golfer's Scot the lot for Euro title

A YOUNG golfer from Harlow has been chosen for a prestigious event which will see him competing on some of the best courses in Scotland.

Fourteen-year-old Mark Hall Sports College student Tom Kisby will compete alongside more than 400 players from some 30 nations.

The young golfers are competing in an event which has emerged as Europe's premier junior tournament to showcase the next generation of golfing stars.

They are all battling it out to win a coveted place in the US Kids Golf World Championships at Pinehurst Golf Club, North Carolina, in August.

The youngster is competing in the boys 14s section.

Tom, a member of Nazeing Golf Club, plays off a handicap of 4.7.

Last year he won the British Junior Golf Tour UK Final, held at the prestigious Celtic Manor golf course.

The British stage of the competition will see young golfers compete on five of Scotland's historic golf courses in East Lothian next month.

The top finishers in each category will then compete in the Van Horn Cup – a showpiece event modelled on the Ryder Cup – where the best European players are pitted against the top non-European golfers.

The top five finishers in each age and gender group will automatically receive an invitation to the US Kids Golf World Championships.

John Godwin, tournament director, said: "Despite their age, these players demonstrate great poise, balance and professionalism. If we get good conditions, I'm confident we will see a host of superb sub-par rounds."

Underdogs win Plate thriller

Skipper Rangers 4, St Germaine 4

Harlow & District Football League Plate final

UNDERDOGS Skipper Rangers overcame their division three opposition in a thrilling seven-goal encounter on Sunday in front of a large crowd at Harlow Town FC.

Division four Skipper took an early lead through Louis Collins. He beat the offside trap and was too strong for the defender before slotting past the oncoming keeper.

It sparked the game into life and both teams played passing attacking football which entertained the crowd.

Skipper went close to increasing their lead through Collins, Joe Fisher and Steven Ashman.

At the other end St Germaine were unlucky not to equalise through Sam Wallace, Lee Exley and Jamie Hunt.

The breakthrough came on the half-hour mark when a long throw caught out the Skipper defence. Jamie Hunt's presence caused Skipper untold problems as the ball went in off a defender.

As half-time approached, Ashman's header forced a brilliant save from Saints keeper Paul Summers.

Summers could do nothing to stop Collins netting just before the break after he pounced on a loose ball to round the keeper and slot ball into the empty for his second.

St Germaine drew level soon after the restart when Wallace controlled the ball well and smashed home.

Both teams pressed and it was a well-worked move involving Jordan Edwards, Collins and Fisher which finally opened up the St Germaine defence. Collins shot was deflected by Summers into Joe Fisher's path and he fired home.

Soon after, George Fitzpatrick's spectacular overhead kick prompted the save of the match from Summers. He blocked the ball with one hand but Fisher was on hand to smash home the deflection and gave Skipper a 4-2 lead.

With full-time approaching St Germaine scored a third goal. Wallace gambled on a loose ball and headed over the advancing keeper.

This made for a very tense final five minutes for Skipper until the referee blew for full-time.

Team secure cup final reprieve

QUENDON Athletic will face Harlow-based Langley Rangers in the Footprint Premier Division Cup final after an appeal was upheld by the Essex FA on Monday.

The village team had appealed after being thrown out for fielding an ineligible player in their semi-final against North Weald, which they won 2-1.

Quendon's secretary admitted he had made a mistake when he fielded an ineligible player in the semi-final.

But the club claimed the Bishop's Stortford, Stansted & District League was wrong to just throw them out of the Premier Division Cup.

The Essex FA appeals committee, which met at Chelmsford, agreed and reinstated Quendon on a technicality.

Kick-off for the final is 7.30pm at Bishop's Stortford FC.

Meanwhile, Alemite cut the gap at the top of the premier to four points with a 5-0 home win over Birchanger. Anthony James struck four for the hosts and Simon Hewitt got the other.

Weald drew 1-1 at home to Langley Rangers. Daniel Saunders got Rangers' goal.

Other results: prem div - Pelly House 0, Old Street 6; Quendon Ath 4, Hatfield Heath; Sheering 1, Loughton 1.

Div one: Dunmow Rhodes 1, North Weald res 4 (Paul Marshall, Martin Binet, Gary Branscombe, Dean Connolly); Hatfield Heath res 11, Lower St 0; Heath Rovers 4, Albury 1; Hertfordshire Rangers 2, Sheering reserves 1; Potter Street A 2 (Craig Beute, Chris Reading), Frontiers 1 (Peter Thorp); Thorley Park 4, Tuxted Rangers res 1.

Don't forget this Barns-stormer!

Welcome to Inside Track, our column that gives you the reader an insight into Harlow Greyhound Stadium as our top tipster reveals his favourites for tomorrow (Friday May 1).

KOALA BARNs made a highly encouraging return following a lay-off last week, finishing second in a decent time.

With improvement likely to come, Koala Barns can resume winning ways probably earlier than connections had expected.

Strong finishing SMOOTH ROYAL looks the only rival with a chance but may find the selection has gone beyond recall.

Undefeated STEADY

MAJOR faces his next challenge at 8.45pm and despite the steep rise in class, he can continue to progress with another victory.

Major is certainly not the fastest from the starting traps but shows explosive early pace to the first bend and can leave his rivals for dead.

Friday May 1 selections:-

7.30pm No Joke Ronan; 7.45pm Koala Barns; 8pm Slipper; 8.15pm Lislevane Model; 8.30pm Ruff By Name; 8.45pm Steady Major; 9pm Tain Darha; 9.15pm Westland Rumble; 9.30pm Harlow Bugatti; 9.45pm Pinewood Ted; 10pm Ontheriverrun; 10.15pm Blackey Said So.

Champs double up for Knockout Cup

CHAMPIONS White Admiral came out on top to triumph in the Harlow & District Premier Darts League Team Knockout Cup. They beat CC Colts 5-1 in the final, although the result was not as easy as the scoreline suggests.

Colts took the first threes game and had an opportunity to win the second threes before losing out as Admiral levelled.

Colts should have won the first fours after opening up a commanding lead but eventually lost both games.

Admiral then won the first two pairs to take the title, with Andy Booth notching his 5th 180 of the season leaving Roland Renker to shoot out on 41 to seal the victory.

In the KO Eights, Admiral run out of luck.

Fortunate to inch past Young Pretenders, they then lost out to a resilient Servo Hawks in the semi-final.

In the other half of the draw CC Foxes went through to the final after first taking out UG Social.

Foxes inched out MH Arrows in the other semi-final.

In the final, Servo took the first and last leg to clinch the win.

Potter Street seal relegation lifeline

POTTER Street took a massive leap towards relegation safety with a thumping 5-1 victory in a 'six-pointer' against Ongar Town.

Tuesday's result allowed Rob Campbell's side to leap-frog their opponents in the Essex Olympian League table.

The visitors won thanks to goals from Michael Kennedy (2), Martyn Beard (2) and Bradley Devonshire.

While Street now look virtually safe, neighbours Epping look doomed.

The Stonards Hill side are six points adrift of safety after a shock 2-1 loss at bottom club Faces on Saturday. Steve Nicks replied.

Boss bemoans Libya tactics Exodus as big names set to quit

HAWKS boss Glen Alzapiedi was angry with some of the tactics displayed by the Libya team as the African nation became the first national team to play at Barrows Farm.

Simulation and some brutal tackles were carried out by the tourists during their goalless draw in a friendly against a strong Harlow Town XI on Monday.

The north Africans are playing a series of friendly matches in this country as they prepare for the 2012 Olympic Games.

"It was a very competitive game. They headbutted one of our players in the first five minutes and that set the tone for the rest of the game," claimed Alzapiedi.

"I think my players responded in a very competitive way. The way they [Libya] marked and behaved at set-plays was quite an eye opener. They were diving and screaming and had plenty of 'professional' habits. They acted as though they had been viciously assaulted. But the ref was quite wise to it."

LIB-ERATED: John Frendo tries to thwart a Libya player

Defender Sam Weaver appeared to be 'headbutted' just a few minutes into the game and was forced off with a cut nose.

Alzapiedi presented the Manager's Award to left-back Michael Bardle. "If he was three or four inches taller he would be playing at a much higher level," said Alzapiedi.

"But I'm glad he's not taller. He has been excellent."

Reserve team player-boss Kevin Warren received the President's Cup from Ron Bruce, having dedicated a tremendous amount of time to both the first team and reserves this season.

Top scorer Richards collected the Golden Boot from Harlow Council Chairman Cllr Tony Hall, before Hasell presented club skipper Mark Taylor with the Players' Player of the Season award.

Behind the scenes, Claire Fincham's tireless work at Barrows Farm earned her the Club Person of the Year award.

Three-nil down by the hour, the league leaders fought back through a Tom Webb brace, but they just couldn't find the back of the net to get the point they needed to seal the championship.

Last Wednesday, Harlow went back to the top with a 6-0 rout of Brimsdown Rovers.

Jamie Richards was the four-goal hero at Barrows Farm.

Tom Webb and Luke Webster also netted.

Hawks now need Brimsdown to somehow hold or beat Aveley in the final game this Saturday.

Hunt eyes GB call-up

He won the 400m with ease, coasting through the line in 49.1 secs, some 10 metres ahead of the 2nd placed athlete.

Later that day Hunt ran the last leg of the 4x400m relay. He took over in 3rd place and cruised around in 48.1s, overtaking two athletes to ensure his club won.

Tooting handed final-day win

IT was a tale of two handballs as already relegated Harlow lost their last premier division match at Barrows Farm.

Tooting & Mitcham went in front after five minutes on Saturday when Jon Stevenson was punished for handball and Dean McDonald blasted in the spot-kick.

With time running out in a dour match, Harlow failed to win an 89th-minute penalty themselves when a Tooting defender appeared to handle.

The visitors broke immediately but sub Matt Howard appeared offside. However, this was not spotted and he ran forward into the box and rolled the ball across for Paul Vines to slot into an empty net.

This prompted a furious rebuke from Harlow keeper James Hasell.

Harlow were without striker Jamie Richards and midfielder Jordan Fowler against Tooting. Both were suspended and will miss the first one and two games respectively of next season as well.

After Tooting went in front, Hasell made a fantastic point-blank save from Vines on 24 minutes.

The hosts struggled to break out of their lethargy and Shaun Gliddon was the only Harlow player posing any kind of attacking threat.

Gliddon's injury-time free-kick missed a host of players and produced a flying save from Tooting keeper Dave King.

Gliddon also had a cross-cum-shot which was superbly tipped over by King.

Striker John Frendo (illness) was forced off at the break and he was later joined on the sidelines by forward Chris Ellerbeck (calf injury).

Hasell made an excellent save just minutes after the restart. McDonald's free-kick was stabbed towards goal but Hasell pushed the effort onto the right post before Harlow cleared.

Hawks centre-half Danny Wolf received a yellow card for shoving McDonald into an advertising hoarding, reminiscent of Graham Roberts' challenge on Arsenal's Charlie Nicholas more than 20 years ago.

With time running out McDonald clipped the bar with a well-executed chip over Hasell.

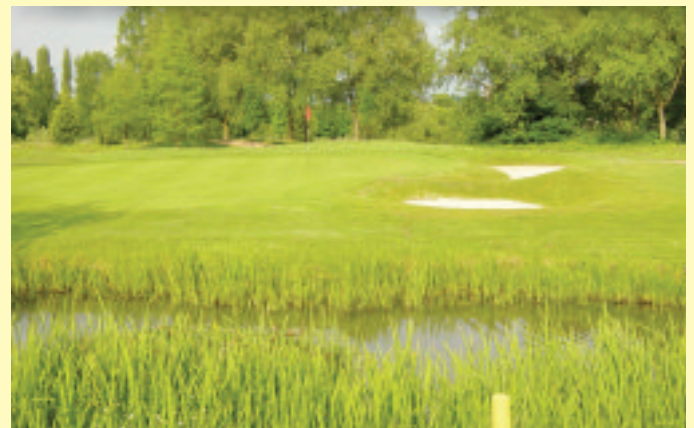

Then came the late drama before Tooting made it 2-0.

The visitors would have had a third but for an excellent late double save from Hasell, who blocked shots from Vines and Justin Pincock.

Hawks boss Glen Alzapiedi said: "We had a setback early on [the penalty]. We looked quite dangerous. I felt we might have got something at the end."

HARLOW TN: HASELL 7, Taylor 5, Bardle 6, Stevenson 3, Wolf 6, Bruno 5, Byrne 5, Frendo 4 (Webster 45, 6), Ellerbeck 6 (Osei-Owusu 62, 4), Crace 5 (Webb 77), Gliddon 7. Subs not used: Warren, Waldox. Att: 330.

Big names could leave following relegation

FANS' favourites Jamie Richards, James Hasell and Mark Taylor could be among several big names leaving Barrows Farm during the summer.

Striker Richards and keeper Hasell – jointly named Supporters' Players of the Year on Saturday – have been linked with moves following the club's relegation from the Ryman premier division.

Hasell and right-back Taylor could link up at Boreham Wood with former Hawks boss Ian Allinson and his No.2 Ryan Kirby, who was sacked as Harlow manager earlier this season.

Hawks boss Glen Alzapiedi refuses to name names yet but admitted there could be many changes over the next few weeks.

"I have made my decision but have not told the players yet," he said. "I have my targets and I have made contact with some players for next season. A significant amount of players will come in. I want some players who I feel will improve the team and are the right type of player for me.

"I will be speaking to the players. There will be players that will want to move on. No one has indicated to me their plans for next season. They are nervous and don't want to ask me."

One player expected to return is ex-Oxford United midfielder Paul Burton, who missed the relegation run-in after

The club held its annual presentation evening after Saturday's 2-0 defeat to Tooting & Mitcham in their final Ryman premier division game.

Club mourns death of son of ex-player

A MINUTE'S silence was held before Harlow Town's match against Tooting & Mitcham in memory of the 16-month-old son of former Hawks defender Danny Chapman, who died on the morning of Saturday's game.

Hawks keeper James Hasell admitted to friends he was not in the right frame for Saturday's game due to the death. Chapman was a close friend of his, who only left the club in January after more than four years.

Chapman's son Jack had battled a long illness before losing his fight for life five days ago.

Hasell had to play as Harlow did not have a substitute keeper for their final Ryman premier division match.

A collection was held during the game for the Chapman family, who live in Waltham Abbey. This raised more than £450 following contributions from players and officials.

Hawks could face FA fine

HARLOW Town FC could be hit with a double whammy after discovering the FA is ready to fine the club for the Ricci Crace fiasco.

Striker Crace was ineligible for the Ryman League premier division match at Wealdstone which Hawks won 2-1.

The club were subsequently deducted the three points for this win by the Ryman League.

However, the FA say the club must have a points deduction AND a fine and is ready to take the club to task.

Adding to Harlow's woes it has transpired that Crace was a contracted player with Enfield Town and this has again breached FA rules.

But a Harlow Town spokesman said the only reason Enfield Town did not pass on the appropriate paperwork for the Crace transfer in time, was due to the death of the club secretary's father.

"We don't know why this did not come up at the FA appeal hearing [at Soho Square]," he added.

ON THE RUN: Harlow runners with their medals after completing the London Marathon (V3KVL24M-05)

Marathon effort from runners

FOURTEEN members of Harlow Running Club joined St Clare Hospice fundraisers taking part alongside tens of thousands in this year's Flora London Marathon.

The very warm weather was ideal for supporters but very energy sapping for those running the 26.2 miles circuit.

As a result no member of the Harlow club achieved a personal best time. However, there were club veteran records for two of the club's more experienced female runners.

Linda Selby smashed the women's vet 60 record by more than 35 minutes with a time of 4hrs, 24 mins 37sec.

Wendy Stevens crushed the previous women's vet 65 record by more than 70 minutes with a time of 5:17.49.

Harlow's first runner home was Justin Revell in his debut marathon with a superb time of 3:00.51.

St Clare's fundraiser Sean Wilkinson, from Harlow, ran 11 and-a-half miles until his knee popped! Then he managed to walk the remainder of the way in 7 hours 15 mins.

Wilkinson raised money in memory of his late wife

Sarah, who was looked after by the Hastingwood hospice. He said: "The public spurned me on, and were terrific! With my name on my vest, they were calling me to encourage me to finish the Marathon. Pubs were also great as they carried banners of St Clare's – so that was good advertising too!"

Other Harlow RC times were: Colin Moody (3:07.10); Alan Wise (3:08.35); Andy Terrell (3:38.19); Dave Burne (3:42.38); John Bull (3:50.54); Sean Flynn (4:09.13); Tony Robinson (4:14.41); Ron Newton (4:31.44); Sarah Webber (4:49.15); Graham Saville (4:51.57); Andy Presland (4:52.37).

Title blow for Town

THE failure to secure the point needed to take the Capital League eastern division title has left Harlow Town reserves needing a favour from Brimsdown Rovers.

Aveley need to beat Rovers to take the crown after Kevin Warren's side lost 3-2 at Enfield Town reserves on Tuesday.
